I desire space in your worthy paper to say a few words in regard to the workings of our County Court at its last session For the last two years the people interest ed in the Wheeling and Fairmont pike, have been dissatisfied with the management of that section under Mr. Kemple, or it was the wish of the people to have tive and the general tone of the market a change. Mr. Acker and two old soldiers were petitioners to the honorable County names. all responsible men-men who felt interested in the road. They desired felt interested in the road. They desired to have Kemple removed.

In the face of these petitions, the County Court reappointed Kemple. Their action in so doing was not only very consoling to the wishes of the petitioners referred to, but to the live interests of every body interested in the pike. It is no wonder that there is now a general feeling of dissatisfaction prevailing among the people in consequence of the refusal of the Court to be guided by the nounter voice.

The great apostile of the Greenbackers, Henry S. Walker, made a speech here on Monday last, and orated about two hours in advocacy of his peculiar ideas in regard to the national finances. At the close of his speech some excited Democrat in the crowd proposed three cheers for John E. growd proposed three cheers for John E. Kenna, and they were given by both the Kenna, and they were given by both the Democrats and Republicans present, with a will. Wasn't that something peculiar? You see the Republicans have not forgot old times, nor have the Democrats. Mr. Walker's conversion to a standpoint where he denounces the Democracy is considered a personal and not a political affair by the Republicans, and they do not see why they should be used as monkeys to pull his chestnuts out of the fire.

Mr. Walker showed decided symptoms of disappointment over the result of his meeting. At the close, after this unlooked for episode, he got into his wagon, along with Mrs. W., and shook the dust from his feet and his wheels. I do not believe that a delegation was appointed to attend the Greenback Convention at Charleston on the 20th. There is some talk of fusion among us, but up to this time it seems to lack cohesion and leaven. The people do not see how a mere fusion in name is to work a change that will bring about permanent results.

M. E. GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The Courier Excursion-Sights and S

ditors Intelligencer:
The excitement over the elections of the General Conference is rapidly subsiding for the reason that the most important of them have already been decided. bishops, Warren, Foss, Hurst and Haven, and two missionary secretaries, Charle Fowler and J. M. Reed have been elected. The elections so far seem to have met with general approval, except in the case of E. O. Haven. It is thought by many that he is too far advanced in life for a position requiring as much labor as that of a Methodist Episcopal bishop.

The effort to secure the election of a colored bishop, though adroitly managed by the friends of the measure, did not meet with much favor. From the feeling exhibited by the Conference when the question was before the body we were impressed that a colored bishop in the M. E. Church, unless under certain conditions, would never be seen, in this generation at least. A colored bishop for Liberia would perhaps be a useful officer or a bishop of color to labor exclusively among the negroes.

Cincinnati is a great city, there seems to be evidences of great business prosperity and life. The principal streets are crowd ed with people, horses, wagons etc., The buildings in the business center of the place, have an air of solidity and durability. The new post office when finished, will be a magnificent building, they are doing nothing at it now. The money has run out and they are waiting for Congress to make another appropriation. I've seen some of the most extensive and magnificent business houses that I have ever seen anywhere. To-day I visited "Walnut Hills" and "Cilliton" which are suburban places. More magnificent residences than these to be seen at this place, are not easily found. The natural advantages however, are unsurpassed. I spent about three hours riding about the elevations around the city, and such scenery as greets the eye here is certainly very pleasing and beautiful.

Spring Grove Cemetery is about five miles from the city, and such scenery as greets the greacful swan. Eight grave diggers are employed constantly, and policemen patrol the grounds day and night. The receipts are about $500 a week. The receipts are about $500 a week. There are some splendid monuments in this cemetery and of unique designs.

The Zoological Gardens are not what I expected to find after hearing somuch said in praise of them. And yet the gardens are worth the time and money have no trouble to sleep at night for we are usually so tired that we fall to sleep as soon as we touch the bed. The entire company is pleasant and congenial. We did not leave the boat to-night, but a Hindoo came down on the boat and entertained us with an account of his conversion and the missionary work in India. He is a very sensible man. He is about the color of a light mulatto. His name is "Ran Chan Dra Bose." He was the lion of the evening. The people seemed to vie with each other in paying him attention. VISITOR.

It is no seless for those who are to blame in this matter to attempt to excuse themselves by eaving that a copy of the petition instead of the original was sent to them. Let that be as it may; let 'Squire Pelly speak.

It is noticeable that almost every signer for the removal of Kemple has protested against the action of the Court. We advise our friends and the honorable Court to think this over for themselves. Certainly, they will be marked as far as voting is concerned, and we do not think any more of the man who keeps alient or occupies neutral ground than the one who comes out openly against the interests of the people in this matter.

New houses are being built and old ones enlarged—all making ready for the reception of the visitors who will soon be here to seek the benefits of the Salt Sulphur Springs, and the cool pleasant air that blows through the groves of Addison.

In ancient times, energy of mind and strength of body was supposed to be the effects of warmth, while depression of effects of warmth, while depression of spirits and bodily weakness were ascribed to cold. Modern science has explained and modified these theories concerning the production of physical and paychical force, but in the main it has confirmed the principle of causation. In a general sense, it may be said that animal heat, when duly generated within normal limits, is the cencomitant of vigor. Practically, therefore, warmth is to be sought and cold avoided; but with this qualification, that the heat must be elletted by organic processes going on in the body, and not borrowed from without. The chief, if not the only use of wraps and warm surroundings is to avoid loss of animal heat by abstraction. It is neither scientific nor hygienic, in any true sense, to trust to external sources of supply for the warmth we require to live well, happily and usefully. The food is more than the raiment, and those who desire to help the poor and melancholy over their "dead points" in the course of life should be chiefly anxious to feed them well and sufficiently. So in the management of self—to live well is to give strength, because they cannot add to the normal and heathy sources of animal heat. Nutriment is the only true fuel. We alluded yesterday to the sweeping sylvania iron mills consequent upon the present un promising condition of the trade. The movement, we see by our yesterday's exchanges, is extending all through the State. In addition to those heretofore mentioned, five of the large mills at Harrisburg have given notice to the puddlers that on and after to-morrow their pay would be cut down from $5 to $4.50 per ton. A like reduction will be made at Duncannon and in the mills along the Juniata. The announcement has created some discontent, but it is thought there will be no attempt to fight the lower sc
